

Juneau Empire Articles on A-J Mine, compiled by Alaskans for Juneau. 3.28.2011 version

"Thane dock wrecked by submarine slide, Sheep Creek wharf collapses as ground underneath caves in,"
The Alaska Daily Empire, August 12, 1915

"Governor's office to rewrite state comments on A-J," March 26, 1991

"Leave A-J mine comments alone," editorial rebutting above, March 28, 1991

"Marine dumping of tailings eyed," April 17, 1991

"A-J town meeting," July 17, 1991

"Report on mine delayed," September 16, 1991

"A-J mine exemption dies in bill," November 7, 1991

"Kensington mine proposal worries fishermen," November 12, 1991

"Coalition opposes Kensington plan," January 22, 1992

"A-J noise analysis draws criticism," February 5, 1992

"ANWR's out, but A-J mine exemption is in energy bill, February 5, 1992

"Senator can't kill A-J exemption," February 7, 1992

"Kensington wastewater changes eyed," February 7, 1992

"Complaints abound as agency alters mining regs," February 18, 1992

"Appeals filed against Kensington," March 24, 1992

"A-J review shifts from BLM to state," May 20, 1992

"City water supply at issue," June 1, 1992

"Salmon damaged by toxics," (Seattle pollution story) June 18, 1992

"Echo Bay ready if permits OK'd," July 6, 1992

"EPA resists permit for mine tidelands," July 8, 1992

"Echo Bay: EPA's action a 'cheap shot'," July 9, 1992

"Consultant says mine noise study falls short," July 10, 1992

"Mine sparks strong interest in planning seat," July 10, 1992

"Despite concerns, state backs reopening A-J mine," July 14, 1992

"Planners ask for better noise studies of A-J mine," July 17, 1992

"Applicants line up; Eighteen seeking seats on planning panel," July 17, 1992

"State balances clean water vs jobs," July 23, 1992

"Kensington mine closer to permits," July 30, 1992

"Flood of comments delay water regs," July 31, 1992

"Critics attack state water-quality regs," August 4, 1992

"Mayor asks for review of mine permit schedule," August 4, 1992

"Not so neutral, some picks for panel are pro-mine," August 5, 1992

"Assembly drops two finalists for planning panel," August 6, 1992

"Panel wants last say on mine's wastewater permit," September 11, 1992

"Kensington debate centers on discharge," August 12, 1992

"Critics: Land-use plan geared to mining interests," August 25, 1992

"City considers higher mine tax," September 4, 1992

"City staffers question plans for Kensington dam," September 17, 1992

"Mining, housing debated," October 2, 1992

"Agencies say permits not needed for mine tailings," ('waters of the United States') October 19, 1992

"Planners fine-tune permit for Kensington mine," October 16, 1992

"Questions linger, but mine nears permit approval," October 28, 1992

"Critics want mine permit delayed; vote planned," October 30, 1992

"Deep-six fix: Feds look at fiords for mine tailings," November 8, 1992

"New schedule pushes A-J decision into February," November 1992

"Permit appeal filed," (Kensington) December 1, 1992

"Assembly holds back bill to mining group," December 22, 1992

1993 news articles

"Lots to say on the A-J," January 13, 1993
"Questions about A-J focus on city water supply," January 20, 1993
"Groups criticize pace of hearings on A-J mine," January 21, 1993
"Planners revise schedule for hearings on A-J mine proposal," January 22, 1993
"City reviews mine's explosives plan," January 27, 1993
"Schedule set for appeal on Kensington," February 3, 1993
"Conflict on mining alleged," February 12, 1993
"Icy Gulch option hotly debated," February 15, 1993
"Skidding prices shut down mine," (Greens Creek closes), February 17, 1993
"The loss of a good neighbor," editorial, February 17, 1993
"Miners options are few," February 17, 1993
"It's a matter of fear," February 18, 1993
"Report paints brighter picture for A-J mine," February 19, 1993
"Assembly to hear Kensington appeal," February 19, 1993
"Kensington permit may go to court," February 21, 1993
"It's a taxing issue," February 22, 1993
"New schedule calls for A-J decision in April," February 22, 1993
"Mine given municipal go-ahead," (Kensington) February 23, 1993
"Many Greens Creek miners expected to leave town," February 23, 1993
"Mining project debated," March 3, 1993
"Keep the mining debate on track," (Greens Creek closure & Kensington and A- J permit debate), Mar4,93
"Mine hearing centers on noise," March 10, 1993
"Budget cuts might affect mine permits," March 11, 1993
"Echo Bay to manager noise," March 17, 1993
"Planners set noise limits on A-J," March 19, 1993
"Report questions A-J effect on water quality," March 25, 1993
"A-J developers told to submit air-quality plan," March 31, 1993
"A-J develop won't have to pay for water warranty," April 7, 1993
"Planners nearing final vote on permit for A-J mine," April 7, 1993
"Making plans to leave mining," April 15, 1993
"Pros, cons debated at hearing on A-J," April 20, 1993
"Public hearing on mine extended," April 21, 1993
"Hearings on A-J mine end; deliberations begin," April 22, 1993
"Mine may be liable," April 27, 1993
"Mine permit OK'd, with conditions," April 30, 1993
"A-J encounters first test," May 2, 1993
"Group flies against mine," (Kensington appeal in Superior Court), May 2, 1993
"Battle over legal costs," May 11, 1993
"Report: A-J could sap water wells," June 1, 1993
"What happened in Summitville?" (Colorado mine disaster), June 13, 1993
"Mine's developers, critics face busy calendar," August 26, 1993
"Mine's foes sue to halt A-J," August 31, 1993
"State extends A-J review to consider coastal issues," September 1, 1993
"Salmon Creek water won't be on tap," (alternative water supply shut down), September 3, 1993
"Appeal of A-J permit rejected; opponents to sue," September 22, 1993
"Critics speak out against water-quality changes," October 6, 1993
"Permits sit as mine developers await other OKs," October 7, 1993
"Not too pleased, Feds criticize water-quality plan in Alaska," November 17, 1993
"Not much action so far on mine lawsuits," November 19, 1993
"Don't fool with Alaska's water," editorial, November 21, 1993
"Mines' critics file suit, violations of Clean Water Act alleged," December 21, 1993

"Lawsuit sparks rebuttal," December 23, 1993

"Big growth, bigger anxiety," (top 10 newsstories of 1993: #8 Kens and A-J permits to court) Dec 30, 1993

1994 news articles

"Mine appellants won't get city bill," January 11, 1994

"Feds to review A-J dam," January 20, 1994

"Don't make the appellants pay," (legal costs of mine permit appeal), January 25, 1994

"Official says A-J mine will be toxic waste site," February 7, 1994

"Kensington ruling due soon," February 17, 1994

"Fish die in creek," March 8, 1994

"Creek tests continuing," March 9, 1994

"Fish in creek didn't freeze to death, expert says," March 10, 1994;

"Tailings may be trouble," March 14, 1994;

"Mine may need new water permit," March 16, 1994;

"Echo Bay to reroute water," March 20, 1994:

"Kensington permit survives challenge," March 20, 1994;

"Is channel clean or dirty? Answer will affect A-J mine, other development projects," March 22, 1994;

"EPA orders Echo Bay to stop work at mine," March 27, 1994;

"Meeting set on mine plans," March 30, 1994;

"Court says EPA, state can't ignore water rules," March 31, 1994;

"Mine hearing draws big crowd," April 6, 1994;

"Miners back on job," April 7, 1994;

"EPA OKs cleanup for mine," April 12, 1994;

"Echo Bay pulls public radio funds," April 12, 1994;

"Test lab set up at creek," April 15, 1994;

"Mine permit appealed to state Supreme Court," April 22, 1994;

"Legal review holds up water test results," April 24, 1994;

"Water tests don't explain fish kill," April 26, 1994;

"A-J to resume exploratory drilling," May 17, 1994;

"Testing still inconclusive," June 10, 1994;

"FBI probes A-J activity," June 17, 1994;

"Young buys gold stock, Murkowski sells his," June 20, 1994:

"Mine critics lose in court," June 23, 1994;

"Mine cave-in kills worker," Friday, July 1, 1994;

"Guards posted near A-J mine," July 7, 1994;

"Cave-in questions continue," July 8, 1994;

"City wants lead in monitoring Echo Bay work," July 10, 1994;

"Miner return to work," July 12, 1994;

"Echo Bay cited for cave-in," July 14, 1994;

"EPA wants a look at Echo Bay's mining activities," July 17, 1994;

"Assembly wants more work done to city watershed plan," July 19, 1994;

"Town wakes to blast," July 25, 1994;

"Lots of theories, no answers to fish kill," August 4, 1994;

"Firm will go after drill rig buried by cave-in," August 4, 1994;

"Dirty waters listed," August 11, 1994;

"Prior notice?" August 14, 1994;

"Attorneys pulled from mine case," August 18, 1994;

"Mine critics file complaint against Usera," August 22, 1994;

"A bad move in the A-J debate," August 23, 1994 (editorial opposing governor's office reassignment of case)

"Water supply tested," August 26, 1994;

"Rat poison fears shut down wells," August 28, 1994;

"Some residents back on Last Chance water," August 31, 1994;

"Water has no poison," September 1, 1994;
"Water safety urged," September 2, 1994;
"Tests find no poison," September 13, 1994;
"Ethics review clears Usera in reassigning A-J lawyers," September 15, 1994;
"State sets up meetings on fish kill," September 17, 1994;
"A safe water supply, Feds want proof from Echo Bay," September 19, 1994;
"Echo Bay chips in for work on water facility," September 23, 1994;
"Echo Bay plans layoffs, slowdown," October 13, 1994;
"A-J gold mine blames red tape for layoffs of 40," October 14, 1994;
"Fire drives crew from mine," October 26, 1994;
"Echo Bay will pay city for monitoring work," October 26, 1994;
"Mine permit upheld," October 27, 1994
"EPA says no to mine," November 4, 1994;
"Mine faces extra-tough scrutiny," November 14, 1994
"EPA finds no problem with Gold Creek water," November 18, 1994;
"Critics appeal A-J permit to state Supreme Court," November 19, 1994;
"Bureau of Mines staff gets 11th-hour reprieve," November 20, 1994;
"Avalanche rolls down Roberts," November 29, 1994;
"Echo Bay pays fine for oil spill," December 4, 1994
"Feds get an earful," December 14, 1994
"Deal gives Greens Creek new hope," December 14, 1994;
"Joining force on mine," December 19, 1994
"Fish kill still a mystery," December 22, 1994;
"Mine proposed for Taku River site," December 26, 1994
"City approves Echo Bay's alternative water plan," December 27, 1994
"Juneau's year of living dangerously," December 30, 1994
"EPA finds fault with A-J project," December 30, 1994

1995 Juneau Empire news articles

"Echo Bay changes plans for EPA," January 5, 1995
"Alaska delegation moves into power," January 5, 1995
"City raps EPA mine report," January 12, 1995
"Water regs face review," January 13, 1995
"More dead fish found in Gold Creek," January 13, 1995
"by land or by sea?" January 14, 1995
"No water, dead fish," January 17, 1995
"Big changes pondered for A-J mine," January 20, 1995;
"Water release planned," January 25, 1995;
"Hickel water regs to face scrutiny," January 31, 1995
"Opponents petition city to stop mines," February 3, 1995
"A-J water spill no threat, state says," February 5, 1995
"City looks for downtown water leak," February 8, 1995
"Echo Bay reports fourth-quarter loss," February 21, 1995
"Plans still changing for B.C. mine," February 22, 1995
"Tailings dam is shelved," March 1, 1995
"Public interest or not?" March 7, 1995
"Joint venture fizzles," April 20, 1995
"Mining symposium has new feature -- greenies," April 27, 1995;
"EPA may allow mine waste in sea," May 3, 1995
"Echo Bay reports loss for first quarter of year," May 10, 1995
"Echo Bay sells Kensington shares," May 11, 1995
"Mine critics won't 'start anew,'" May 18, 1995

“Kensington gets EPA’s OK,” June 15, 1995
“With EPA’s OK, Kensington clears big hurdle,” June 16, 1995
“A-J focus shifts to ocean dumping,” June 22, 1995
“Optimistic about Kensington,” July 2, 1995
“Disposal of A-J tailings studied,” July 5, 1995
“A-J wants OK to dump wastewater,” July 6, 1995
“Mine to reopen, jobs in Skagway,” July 18, 1995
“Echo Bay loses nearly $13 million in 2nd quarter,” August 2, 1995
“Yukon mine resumes ore shipments,” August 17, 1995
“Geddes gets $114 million for halting Windy Craggy,” August 22, 1995
“Governor reviews water quality rules,” August 24, 1995
“Meeting tonight on Taku Inlet tailings dumping,” September 6, 1995
“Tailings discharge changes aired,” September 7, 1995
“Greens Creek mine clears hurdles,” September 13, 1995
“A-J mine industrial site to move,” September 14, 1995
“Mine company bars critics from tour,” September 15, 1995
“Mine’s wastewater method changed,” September 15, 1995
“Cooperation reshapes the Kensington project,” September 17, 1995
“Coeur Alaska tried new tack: Resolving differences first,” September 17, 1995
“New noise study under way for A-J mine,” October 4, 1995
“Arsenic levels in limbo,” October 18, 1995
“Rough data haunts Kensington,” November 1, 1995
“Echo Bay Rethinks the AJ Mine project,” Nov 1-7, 1995 (Capital City Weekly)
“A Tale of Gold and Water,” Nov 1-7, 1995 (Capital City Weekly)
“Salmon Creek project ahead of schedule,” November 9, 1995
“Icy Gulch could provide hydroelectric power,” November 10, 1995
“Echo Bay promises quiet surface facilities,” November 12 1995
“Below the surface at the A-J mine,” November 12, 1995
“Mining the old A-J was exciting, dangerous work,” November 12, 1995
“EPA publishes mine-permit newsletter,” November 17, 1995
“Is the future of the A-J under water?” November 22, 1995 (The Paper)
“Miners, critics close to agreement,” December 8, 1995
“State tentatively OKs heightened salts discharge in Gold Creek,” December 13, 1995
“It’s not just muck down there,” December 15, 1995
“Agencies review mountain of paperwork,” December 15, 1995
“Goldbelt to swap acreage,” December 19, 1995
“Opposing sides agree on school aquarium,” December 27, 1995 (The Paper)
“1995: A year that will be remembered for ...” December 26, 1995

1996 news articles

“Echo Bay looks down deep for tailings disposal,” January 3, 1996
“Echo Bay looks to rebuild gold reserves, image,” January 3, 1996 (The Paper)
“State surveys laid-off silver mine workers,” January 4, 1996;
“Noise study a good start,” January 4, 1996;
“DEC deputy is now commissioner,” January 24, 1996
“Echo Bay gets EPA nod,” February 6, 1996
“Speeding up the process,” Capital City Weekly, Jan 31-Feb 6, 1996
“Watchdogs concerned about Echo Cove plan,” February 13, 1996
“EPA eyes ocean dumping,” February 6, 1996
“Echo Bay submits new paperwork,” February 21, 1996
“News service runs blooper on A-J mine,” February 23, 1996
“Echo Bay passes ‘major milestone’,” February 25, 1996;
“Water rights applications hit bottleneck,” February 26, 1996

"More than an 8-hour shift in shaft," February 29, 1996
"Mine invests $80 million to reopen," March 7, 1996
"Easterwood named head of community development," March 11, 1996
"Public comment period opens for mine," March 15, 1996
"All sides take issue with water regs," March 15, 1996
"A mother lode of public scrutiny," March 19, 1996
"Woman makes list of top guns," March 25, 1996
"Kensington mine critics eye lawsuit," March 31, 1996
"Permit of polluting mining company axed," April 3, 1996
"Echo Bay to sign labor pact," April 5, 1996
"Diesel leaks near Sheep Creek," April 5, 1996
EPA hosts mine open house for Supplemental EIS -- April 15, 1996 (advertisement)
"Longer hours for miners gets approval," April 17, 1996
"Knowles says he'll sign bill allowing longer hours for miners," April 18, 1996
"State tax incentive law spurs mine exploration, development," April 21, 1996
"Comment date extended for mine plan," April 21, 1996
"Echo Bay reports $16.2 million loss," April 30, 1996
"Kaiser steps into mine coordinator job," May 5, 1996
"Echo Bay's Cliff Davis takes position at TVX Gold," May 15, 1996
"When Juneau was all about gold," May 23, 1996
Question and Answer with Cliff Davis," The Paper, May 31, 1996
"Study comments delay mine work," June 7, 1996
"Mine tailings expert visits Juneau, June 9, 1996
"Dock may be used for miners, tourists," June 10, 1996
"Mine tailings won't travel, says study," June 12, 1996
"Cliff Davis heads east," June 14, 1996
"EPA water quality expert to visit," June 16, 1996
"New player in enviro-politics: CARE," June 19, 1996
"Who is Chuck Cushman? June 19, 1996
"Change in water standards awaits decision," June 28, 1996
"Echo Bay trimming costs, maybe trimming staff," July 24, 1996
"Goodhard gets the job of opening the A-J mine," July 17, 1996
"Tax break for Greens Creek draws lawsuit against city," July 23, 1996
"Pink slips given at Echo Bay," August 6, 1996
"Few mines are likely to use deep-sea disposal," September 1, 1996
"No new issues raised at A-J Mine public hearing," August 28, 1996
"Chamber members want more activism," August 30, 1996
"Fear spurs debate over A-J tailings," September 1, 1996
"Mine critics win court decision," September 6, 1996
"A-J mine meeting tonight," September 11, 1996
"EPA asked to narrow A-J mine options," September 12, 1996
"Gold Creek a raging river," September 26, 1996
"Rain, wind, mud," September 26, 1996
"Glacier Avenue mop up begins," September 26, 1996
"Cruiseship, dynamite barge had close call," September 26, 1996
"Slide under tram misses buildings, hits mining ruins," September 27, 1996
"Assessing the damage," September 27, 1996
"Digging out of the mud," September 29, 1996
"Trail conditions dangerous after storm," October 1, 1996
"Seeking answers in the mud," October 6, 1996
"Mine tailings toxic to sand fleas," October 24, 1996
"Home page will give Internet travelers a trip through the A-J mine," November 1996
"Fairbanks firefighters train to handle sodium cyanide spills," November 15, 1996
"Feds narrow gold mines choices," November 20, 1996

“Coeur asks for regulatory relief,” November 25, 1996
“Model of tailings path created,” December 17, 1996
“Echo Bay stock takes plunge,” December 22, 1996

1997 news articles

“Is Juneau’s drinking water in jeopardy?” January 9, 1997
“ECHO BAY DROPS A-J,” EXTRA edition of Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“Coeur not interested in picking up A-J project,” EXTRA edition of Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“History of Juneau is found in origins of the A-J mine,” EXTRA edition Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“Residents react to news of gold mine,” EXTRA edition of Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“Company will bring two foreign mines into production,” EXTRA Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“City officials express disappointment,” EXTRA edition of Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“Critics react to pullout,” EXTRA edition of Juneau Empire, January 14, 1997;
“From the publisher,” January 15, 1997;
“Mine decision ripples widen,” January 15, 1997;
“Mine company workers face change,” January 16, 1997
“Digging for taxes,” January 20, 1997
“Options for the A-J,” January 27, 1997
“Echo Bay has three main options for A-J,” January 27, 1997;
“Gold prices slump,” February 7, 1997
“Groups band together against mining changes,” February 19, 1997
“Good science or industry wish list?” February 21, 1997
“Feds approve new arsenic standards for Alaska streams,” February 23, 1997
“PCBs detected in A-J mine,” March 4, 1997;
“A-J PCB problem minor,” March 7, 1997
“EPA will wrap up A-J report by summer,” March 12, 1997
“Buyer eyes A-J mine,” March 14, 1997
“Echo Bay CEO ousted by board,” April 23, 1997;
“Water quality board may oversee industry discharge, standards,” May 1, 1997;
“Echo Bay rejects bid to buy A-J mine,” May 14, 1997
“Echo Bay may let caverns fill and spill,” May 29, 1997.
“Mine closure plans proceed,” June 3, 1997;
“After years of work, water regs are done,” June 4, 1997;
“A-J mine closure handed over,” July 9, 1997;
“Gold Creek could get mine water,” August 15, 1997
“Echo Bay backs off two more mines,” September 9, 1997;
“Water in mine tunnel poses threat,” September 11, 1997;
“City sells water bonds,” October 10, 1997
“Agency decides to drop plan for A-J mine tailings,” December 19, 1997;
“State regulator keeps an eye on Guyana,” December 30, 1997;

1998 news articles

“Echo Bay Mines knocked off S&P 500 Index,” January 20, 1998
“Mine closure hits Skagway,” January 20, 1998
“Kvaerner gets permit to pump wastewater,” April 6, 1998;
“Appeal delays A-J pumping,” May 3, 1998;
“FBI shows mine misdeeds,” May 4, 1998
“A-J mine info sparks investigation,” May 6, 1998
“Reopen probe into mine practices,” May 6, 1998 (Empire editorial)
“Echo Bay fallout told,” May 11, 1998
“Mine official: There was no skullduggery,” May 22, 1998

"A-J mine pumping may start soon," June 4, 1998;
"Schools, mining issues marked '98," December 31, 1998;

1999-present news articles

"Kvaerner cuts global staff," May 4, 1999;
"Underwater tailings disposal gets mixed review," May 20, 1999;
"Sealing of A-J mine going according to schedule," September 14, 1999;
"Pump will get rid of -J mine's extra water," September 30, 1999;
"Group that fought A-J mine takes on airport expansion," February 17, 2000;
"Jerry Harmon thinks he's struck a Tourism Gold Mine," April 25, 2000;
"Alaska-Juneau mine cleaned and closed up," July 11, 2000;
"Walking into History," July 23, 2000
"Tapping into tailings: Miners' dream or residents' nightmare?" October 10, 2000;
"Worth a thousand words," March 11, 2001;
"Assembly may ease mine permit reviews," March 9, 2003;
"Southeast Sagas: A Tale of Two Tunnels," September 12, 2003;
"AJ managers, 1930s," January 20, 2004
"Early Juneau movers and shakers," February 11, 2004;
"Mining at Thane set records -- briefly," May 19, 2004;
"Tourist plans unlikely for warehouse," December 13, 2004;
"State of disrepair," June 20, 2005;
"Partnership takes on cleanup of old mine's oil tanks," October 4, 2005;
"Mining project OK'd," November 15, 2006;
"Historic site running out of chances," May 30, 2007
"A Golden History," February 2, 2008;
"Dirty old mines," March 23, 2008
"AJ Mine advisory committee created," January 25, 2011;
"Concerns about water quality surface at AJ Mine subcommittee meeting Wednesday," February 24, 2011;
"Mine committee reviews Echo's '97 concept, tailings," March 11, 2011;

Letters to the Editor

"Why city must spell out, enforce mining requirements," April 30, 1992, Steven Behnke
"Thane residents still not convinced," July 21, 1992, Steve Behnke
"Governor should show his care for environment," July 23, 1992, Steven Behnke
"Mixing zone for mine wastes could hurt seafood industry," July 7, 1992, Eldon Dennis
"Mine noise study should include look at Douglas," July 21, 1992, Margo Waring
"Mines are just not worth it for Juneau," September 1992, Hilary B. Hart
"Citizens concerned fishing is losing to mining," September 22, 1992, Caryl Boehnert
"The 'new' A-J isn't much better than the old," February 3, 1993, Elaine Vandersande
"Planning commission not doing its job," February 16, 1993, Steven Behnke
"Juneau must be prepared to deal with mining," February 23, 1993, Joseph R. Mehrkens
"Mining left a mess behind in Butte, Mont.," February 28, 1993, Carol Gunstrom
"Attacks on Thane residents too personal," February 28, 1993, Paula Terrel
"Gold Creek Basin much more than just land," March 11, 1993, Karen Dupere
"Planning commission fails to protect residents," April 14, 1993, Larri Irene Spengler
"Planning commission should reject A-J permit," April 1993, Luann McVey
"Mines should not get OK unless company earns it," April 30, 1993, Margo Waring
"A-J mine would harm Juneau's quality of life," May 25, 1993, Deanna Darnall
"City has failed to protect
"City has failed to protect Juneau's water supply," April 12, 1994, Laurie Ferguson Craig;
"Alaskans for Juneau simply anti-mining," April 19, 1994, Dave Riggelman;

"Put more science into Gold Creek debate," April 21, 1994, Kenneth Maas;
"Alaskans for Juneau defends its statements," April 28, 1994, Laurie Ferguson Craig;
"Echo Bay going too far in its security measures," July 5, 1994, Brett Dillingham;
"People should question how information is used," July 15, 1994, S.L. Harbanuk
"Mine security guard stepped over the line," July 19, 1994, Skip Gray
"It's not fair to belittle a rookie security officer," July 21, 1994, Steven Findsen
"Our drinking water must be protected," July 22, 1994, Joyce Levine
"A-J miner's death should not be forgotten," July 24, 1994, Susan Browne
"People should question how information is used," July 15, 1994, S.L. Harbanuk
"Death of miner should not be overlooked," August 5, 1994, Betsy Haas
"Mining wastes do not belong in Gold Creek," August 9, 1994, Luann McVey
"Juneau Empire commits irresponsible journalism," August 9, 1994, Chuck Achberger
"Juneau cannot afford to lose its clean water," August 11, 1994, Karen Dupere
"Special interests can run over public interest," August 29, 1994, Jerry Madden
"Mining industry forgets who owns the land," August 30, 1994, Larry Edfelt
"Interagency communication important to A-J," September 16, 1994; Paul Rusanowski
"Alaskans for Juneau owes us some answers," October 27, 1994, H.R. Bullis
"Voters see through Echo Bay public relations," November 3, 1994, Margo Waring
"My Turn: Juneau must improve its economic health." November 3, 1994, Roger W. Griffin
"Don't let vocal minority represent the community," November 7, 1994, Peter Bibb;
"Juneau has a lot to lose from re-opening the mine," November 8, 1994, Dr. D.J Clarkson
"My Turn: The answers are in our front and backyards," November 20, 1994, Tracy Bird
"Alaskans for Juneau serves an important role," November 20, 1994, Danelle McCarthy
"Why are Echo Bay guards stationed on Basin Road?" November 27, 1994, Ke Mell
"Echo Bay deserves close scrutiny," December 8, 1994, Linda M Moats;
"echo Bay's reaction to $250,000 fine revealing," December 19, 1994, Jeff Gnass
"Kensington would put Lynn Canal fishery at risk," December 15, 1994, Peter Enticknap
"Echo Bay says it wants partnership with Juneau," December 15, 1994, Cliff Davis
"Juneau residents want the time to study issues," December 29, 1994;"
"My Turn: EPA is right to challenge A-J mine," January 16, 1995, Robert I. Wilbur;
My Turn: The mine could cost Juneau the capital," January 18, 1995, Jody Liliedahl
"City's A-J mine letter to EPA was inappropriate," January 19, 1995, Stuart Cohen
"EPA comments on A-J shouldn't be taken lightly," January 20, 1995, T. Kelly Corrigan
"City was wrong to take position on EPA report," January 20, 1995, Mickey Pico
"City must remain open to consideration of mines," January 24, 1995, James E. Dennis;
"Why did it take so long to investigate fish kill?" January 24, 1995,H.R. Bullis
"Assembly, city officials need to learn objectivity," January 29, 1995, Gail Bills
City was right to question EPA's report on A-J mine," January 30, 1995, Chuck Achberger
"City should not behave as cheerleader for A-J," February 5, 1995, Jeff Gnass
"Water quality issues come as no srprise," February 5, 1995 Margo Waring
"Why isn't Basin Road closed off to all traffic?" February 5, 1995, Bill Chisham
"Mine regulators miss the importance of jobs," February 5, 1995, Bob Robinson
"My Turn: City officials owe EPA an apology," February 7, 1995, Skip Gray
"Juneau has shown it can live happily with mining," February 7, 1995, Marcus F. Jensen
"Gold Creek investigation a waste of money," February 16, 1995, John F. Barry
"The city has been lax in review of A-J project," February 17, 1995, Barbara Tomlinson Greening
"Echo Bay can change its project for the better," March 15, 1995, Douglas K. Mertz
"Mine opponents do not represent all of the public," March 21, 1995, chuck Achberger
"Mining companies talk with the critics," Empire editorial, September 19, 1995
"Coverage of Alaskans for Juneau wrong again," September 22, 1995, Susan Christianson
"Echo Bay's motives are not altruistic," September 29, 1995, Tim Spengler
"Davis reason questioned," September 29, 1995, Luann McVey
"Kensington mine problems not solved yet," October 3, 1995, Eric Holle
"Coverage of mine issues has been enlightening," October, 1995, Donald Greenberg

"My Turn: I remember a pristine Berners Bay," October 5, 1995, Burl Sheldon
"Contradictions of mine trip dismays reader," October 19, 1995, Elaine Schroeder
"My Turn: Here's a little more insight on mining negotiations," December 31, 1995, Burl Sheldon
"We've studied enough, let's open the A-J mine," Empire editorial, February 8, 1996
"Do you think there's anyplace Echo Bay could dump its mine tailings ..." cartoon, February 21, 1996
"Empire editorial has little basis in fact," February 21, 1996, Laurie Ferguson Craig
"Public process should not be undermined," February 23, 1996, David M. Chambers
"A resident's defense of the A-J Mine project," March 14, 1996, Robert Craig
"From underground to 30,000 feet," April 7, 1996, Becky L. Gay
"You'd think that the easiest thing for a mining company to do ..." cartoon, April 9, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"Greens Creek housing Forest Service employees," May 31, 1996, Jane Mosher
"Some realities of mining weren't mentioned," April 17, 1996, Alan R. Munro
"There must be some legal way ..." cartoon, May 8, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"Fish prices are poor, crabbing is static..." cartoon, May 9, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"In the article on the public comments concerning the gold mine..." cartoon, June 16, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"Juneau's mining legacy endures test of time," June 30, 1995, Mary Lou Gerbi
"Do you meean to say we are going to downgrade our streams ..." cartoon, July 8, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"My Turn: Darker days of mining past should be acknowledged," July 10, 1996, Clay Good
"You're going to sell the tailings..." cartoon, September 4, 1996, Syd Stibbard
"...tailings dumped in ocean cover 10 sq miles?" November 24, 1997, cartoon, Syd Stibbard
"... why interest in gold mines?" December 15, 1996, cartoon, Syd Stibbard
"Bringing the A-J mine debacle into focus," January 17, 1997, Mark Schilling
"Real people and real mortgages," January 19, 1997, Susan Christianson
"Sad day for Echo Bay, a good corporate citizen," January 21, 1997, Chuck Achberger
"What about housing legislators in AJ Mine?" January 24, 1997, cartoon, Syd Stibbard,
"Letter criticizing AFJ member is irresponsible," January 26, 1997
"My Turn: Juneau is loser in Echo Bay decision," January 26, 1997, James E. Mayer
"Hyperbole is unnecessary," January 30, 1997, Peggy Wilcox
"Concerned for Juneau because it's our home," February 2, 1997, Larri Irene Spengler
"It's local -- they're pumping out the A-J Mine," cartoon Syd Stibbard, February 7, 1997
"My Turn: Mining companies seek meaningless reviews," April 20, 2003, Laurie Ferguson Craig;
"ABC report revives Echo Bay memories," July 2, 2004, Clancy Desmet;
"Anti-mine letter writers miss points," September 15, 2005, Chris Dewitt;
"Mines and tailings helped build Juneau," June 19, 2006, Kevin Nye
"Empire was just doing its job," December 26, 2006, Skip Gray

News articles from Anchorage Daily News:

"Mine dispute splits Juneau," November 16, 1989;
"Green or Gold: This is Juneau's choice as the battle to reopen the A-J Mine intensifies -- polarizing Alaska's capital city," special feature in We Alaskans, ADN magazine, January 27, 1991:
"Mines take double hit," February 17, 1993:
"Mining experts still hopeful," February 18, 1993;
"Groups fail to stop dumping," December 22, 1993;
"Gold mine needs federal license for hydro project," January 21, 1994;
"Juneau fish deaths baffle state experts," March 11, 1994;
"Federal agencies watch investigation of dead fish," March 20, 1994;
"EPA shuts mine, may seek permit," March 28, 1994;
"Plans to remove A-J mine silt OK'd," April 13, 1994;
"Regulators search for cause of fish kill," April 13, 1994;
"Echo Bay cuts support of radio over coverage," April 13, 1994;
"FBI investigates pollution; Juneau mine denies blame," June 18, 1994;
"Echo Bay going too far in its security measures," July 5, 1994

“Perceived perceptions,” August 21, 1994, Alaska Ear column
“Usera misused position, mine opponents say,” August 23, 1994;
“Rat poison detected near Juneau’s water source,” August 28, 1994
“300 dead fish cost Echo Bay,” December 3, 1994:
“EPA eyes ocean dumping,” February 6, 1996
“A-J mine plan gets the shaft,” January 15, 1997
“Decision to scrap mine plan worries Juneau businesses,” January 19, 1997;

Other news sources:

Los Angeles Times: “Cyanide Clouds Juneau’s Vision of Gold,” March 29, 1990
The Christian Science Monitor: “Mine Openings Trouble Alaskans,” August 8, 1990
Wilderness Magazine: “Going for the Gold,” Winter, 1990
The Seattle Times/Seattle Post-Intelligencer, “Mining Future, Environmentalists try to stave off rush for state’s minerals,” (about A-J mine) December 30, 1990
Idaho Spokesman-Review: “Unsafe mining alleged,” November 14, 1991 (EB’s Republic, WA mine)
Idaho Spokesman-Review: “Mine may be cited in fatal blast,” November 14, 1991 (EB’s Republic, WA mine)
Southeast Alaska Business Journal, “AJ and Kensington: Worth their weight in Gold?” January, 1993
The Denver Post: “Mine becomes bottomless money pit,” (about Summitville mine), January 21, 1993
Globe and Mail (Toronto): “Echo Bay’s Alaskan mine plan bogged down in legal manoeuvring,” June 11, 1993
Outside Magazine: “Where to Live: Ten Towns that Have It All,” Juneau rated number 5, July 1992
Wall Street Journal: “Gold’s Advance Toward $400 Spurs Insider Selling at 2 Firms,” January 19, 1994
Globe and Mail: “EPA rejects proposal for tailings,” November 10, 1994;
Wall Street Journal: “Echo Bay Mines maps big plans to refurbish its image,” December 28, 1995
Globe and Mail: “Mining firms consider deep sea dumping,” February 23, 1996
Wall Street Journal: “Echo Bay Mines will write off $77 million for Alaska property,” January 16, 1997
The Anchorage Times: “Grave dancing,” January 24, 1997
Wall Street Journal: “Gold-Mining Firms Act to Meet Price-slump Challenge,” January 27, 1997

###