SUBJECT: "Ready or Not...Don't Get Caught!"
2017 Juneau Safety and Preparedness Expo

The City and Borough of Juneau Local Emergency Planning Committee, in partnership with United States Coast Guard, and The American Red Cross would like to invite you to participate in the fourth biennial 2017 Juneau Preparedness Expo September 15-16, 2017 at Centennial Hall.

The Expo is scheduled for:

Friday, September 15th (11am – 7pm) and Saturday, September 16th (10am – 5pm)

The Expo is FREE to all Exhibitors, Vendors, Presenters and the Public:

- Promote your organization, its mission and activities.
- Does your organization participate in an activity that makes Juneau safer or better prepared? Show off your good work!
- Do you need volunteers to support your mission? Recruit them here!
- Do have information or products that could make our community safer or better place to live? Display them at your exhibit!

Participation is easy:

1. Complete the Registration form and return it to andrew.bogar@redcross.org
 - Please consider what your organization can do to make your booth as engaging and fun for the public as possible.
 - Do a presentation to promote your message to the community.
 - Games and activities will make your information more exciting and memorable.
 - Send us survival stories to be read throughout the event by you or someone else.
 - Send us an article about your organization that highlights your role in safety/preparedness.
 - If you need suggestions or assistance please don't hesitate to contact the event coordinator at andrew.bogar@redcross.org.
2. We will contact you upon receipt to confirm and ask how we can support you.
3. Done. Attend, enjoy, learn and share with your neighbors. We look forward to seeing you!

We encourage your organization to be represented and involved in this important community event. Please contribute and help build a more resilient Juneau.
