CBJ needs volunteers to help prioritize city programs & services

If you care about what programs & services the city provides, please volunteer

The City and Borough of Juneau still needs volunteers to participate in focus groups that will help determine what programs and services the community values most. Focus group sessions start Friday.

The effort is part of a new, expanded CBJ budget process. Public participation will inform the Juneau Assembly and city staff on community priorities, and help guide spending decisions as the capital city prepares for even tighter budget times.

Each focus group session lasts two hours. CBJ is still looking for volunteers to participate in these focus groups:

- Seniors: Friday, Feb. 3, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., Assembly Chambers
- Rotary/Chamber members: Monday, Feb. 6, 1 to 3 p.m., Valley Library
- General Public: Thursday, Feb. 9, 1 to 3 p.m., Valley Library
- Families with kids in grades K – 8: Saturday, Feb. 11, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., Valley Library
- General Public: Thursday, Feb. 16, 6 to 8 p.m., Valley Library

Sign up for a focus group at <https://beta.juneau.org/pdb/focus-group-registration> or by contacting Deputy City Manager Mila Cosgrove at mila.cosgrove@juneau.org or 586-5240.

CBJ is also holding public education meetings on the CBJ budget and the new, expanded budget process on Thursday, Feb. 2 at 7 p.m. in Assembly Chambers and Saturday, Feb. 4 at 10 a.m. in the Valley Library.
