ALASKA STATUTES, Section 29.45.030 (e)(f) REQUIRED EXEMPTIONS.

(e) The real property owned and occupied as the primary residence and permanent place of abode by a (1) resident 65 years of age or older; (2) disabled veteran; or (3) resident at least 60 years old who is the widow or widower of a person who qualified for an exemption under (1) or (2) of this subsection, is exempt from taxation on the first $150,000 of the assessed value of the real property. A municipality may, in case of hardship, provide for exemption beyond the first $150,000 of assessed value in accordance with regulations of the department. Only one exemption may be granted for the same property and, if two or more persons are eligible for an exemption for the same property, the parties shall decide between or among themselves who is to receive the benefit of the exemption. Real property may not be exempted under this subsection if the assessor determines, after notice and hearing to the parties, that the property was conveyed to the applicant primarily for the purpose of obtaining the exemption. The determination of the assessor may be appealed under AS 44.62.560 - 44.62.570.

(f) To be eligible for an exemption under (e) of this section for a year, a municipality may by ordinance require that an individual also meet requirements under one of the following paragraphs: (1) the individual shall be eligible for a permanent fund dividend under AS 43.23.005 for that same year or for the immediately preceding year; or (2) if the individual has not applied or does not apply for one or both of the permanent fund dividends, the individual would have been eligible for one of the permanent fund dividends identified in (1) of this subsection had the individual applied. An exemption may not be granted under (e) of this section except upon written application for the exemption. Each municipality shall, by ordinance, establish procedures and deadlines for filing the application. The governing body of the municipality for good cause shown may waive the claimant's failure to make timely application for exemption and authorize the assessor to accept the application as if timely filed. If an application is filed within the required time and is approved by the assessor, the assessor shall allow an exemption in accordance with the provisions of (e) of this section. If the application for exemption is approved after taxes have been paid, the amount of tax that the claimant has already paid for the property exempted shall be refunded to the claimant. The assessor shall require proof in the form the assessor considers necessary of the right to and amount of an exemption claimed under (e) of this section, and shall require a disabled veteran claiming an exemption under (e) of this section to provide evidence of the disability rating. The assessor may require proof under this subsection at any time.

ALASKA ADMIN CODE 3 AAC 135.040. Deadlines and calculations

The following property shall be exempt from the general tax levied pursuant to CBJ 69.10.010 and the flat tax levied pursuant to CBJ 69.10.015:

(1) Property exempted by state or federal law, provided that:

(A) In the case of an exemption on the first $150,000.00 of assessed value pursuant to AS 29.45.030(e),

(i) the property is owned and occupied as the primary residence and permanent place of abode by (1) a resident 65 years of age or older; (2) a disabled veteran; or (3) a resident at least 60 years old who is the widow, widower, or surviving same-sex domestic partner of a person who qualified for an exemption under (1) or (2) of this subsection;

(ii) The owner is a person eligible for a permanent fund dividend under AS 43.23.005 for the same year for which the exemption is sought or for the immediately preceding year; and

(iii) The claimant files an application no later than March 31 of the first assessment year for which the exemption is sought. Subsequent annual applications shall not be required from a person 65 years of age or older claiming under AS 29.45.030(e)(1), from a permanently disabled veteran claiming under AS 29.45.030(e)(2), or from a resident at least 60 years of age or older who is a widow, widower, or surviving same-sex domestic partner of either, but the assessor may at any time demand proof of current eligibility.

(B) Reserved.

(C) The assembly, for good cause shown, may waive the claimant's failure to make timely application for an exemption under subsection (A) or (B) and authorize the assessor to accept the application as if timely filed. "Good cause" shall mean:

(ii) Extraordinary circumstances for a finding of good cause do not include late filing due to the claimant's inadvertence, oversight, or lack of knowledge regarding the filing requirements or deadline, financial hardship, or reliance on misinformation provided by a professional such as a real estate broker, banker, attorney, or accountant.

(D) The City and Borough shall not accept a late application for an exemption under subsection (A) or (B) that is filed more than one year after the date the application was due for the assessment year for which the exemption is sought, regardless of good cause.
