Want to book a meeting? Check the calendars to see what time and space is available for your meeting, then give us a call. Wondering when your group is scheduled to meet? The online calendar is a great place to double check since meetings may be cancelled or changed.

Kids Review: The Black Circle by Patrick Carmen

"It is exciting and you will really want to live it. The story was very engrossing and sucks you in. If you like history and realistic stories, you might like this book."

November 2011

At the Juneau Public Libraries...

November All month

November is NaNoWrMo (National Novel Writing Month)— All Libraries

Love books? Write One! Writers are invited to come write the next Great American Novel at the public library. Join us for 30 days and 30 nights of literary abandon! Come if you're a serious writer, come if you're a "one-day I'll write a novel" writer. Meet other writers, make friends, get competitive or don't. We'll have tea and coffee to keep you going as well as writing prompts, pep talks and more.

Come Write In: Libraries

Open Writing Labs held in library conference rooms all of November. Coffee and tea provided.

Mondays— Downtown 5-8pm

Tuesdays- Douglas 5-8pm

Wednesdays- Valley 5-8pm

November 1st

Tuesday
5:30pm

Family Night for Preschoolers— Downtown Library

How many times have you heard, "Tell me a story"? Bring your preschooler out for a night of fun at the library as we listen to a local storyteller, make books and relay your own family story to your child. A light supper is included and all children receive a free book to take home! Call AEYC at 789-1235 for more information.

November 5th

Saturday
1:00pm

The Story of the Town Bear and the Forest Bear— Downtown Library

Join author Ernestine Hayes, illustrator Wanda Loescher Culp, and Tlingit reader Marsha Hotch, for a story about Forest Bear who is happy living in the woods until one day his relative comes to visit... This is a Family program with a story in both English and Tlingit.

Patsy Ann of Alaska: The True Story of a Dog— Downtown Library

Author Tricia Brown and illustrator Jim Fowler will talk about their newest book Patsy Ann. Today, a bronze statue stands at the docks of Juneau, not far from the Downtown Library, commemorating the independent dog who became "official town greeter" at the Juneau ship docks in the 1930's. Brown is the author of many popular children's books including Children of the Midnight Sun, The Itchy Little Musk Ox, and Groucho's Eyebrows. Fowler has illustrated more than a dozen children's books including First Salmon, Benny's Flag and I'll see you when the Moon is Full. Books available for sale and signing.

November 11th

Friday

Veterans Day— Downtown and Douglas closed. Valley open 12-5pm.

November 12th

Saturday

NaNoWrMo: Workshop with Local Author Geoff Kirsch- Valley Library

Frantic writing under intense deadlines with career-weight implications—that's what I do as a professional writer/stay-at-home dad. Through discussion, exercises, and possibly even an AV component, this class will focus on letting go of the stress of writing. I will also lead a crash course in the craft of writing, as well as techniques for keeping the story moving forward, always forward, even during flashbacks. This workshop is open to writers of all levels; please register in advance by emailing jonas@juneau.org

November 13th

Sunday
3:00pm

Family Movie Afternoon— Douglas Library

Hungry? Why wait for Thanksgiving? Join us for Pixar's delicious movie Ratatouille! All ages welcome, snacks provided.
